Wallace Library Newsletter

Spring 2013

New Copier: A new coin-operated copier has been installed downstairs next to the catalog computer. This copier also allows users to scan documents to their own USB flash drive for free. The old card operated copier is still available for larger copying jobs. If you need help with the copiers please come to the circulation desk.

Library Email Notices: Please be advised that all courtesy (notification of future due date), overdue, and fine notices are sent to your school email account.

New Dissertations Accessible: Dr. Sibley and Dr. Worthington's hard work are now available to read in the library. Congratulations and a thank you to both for their contributions to biblical scholarship, and Wallace Library's collection.

Library Account Access for New Catalog: Access your library account at criswell.worldcat.org. Renew, view checked out items, and fines. Click "My Library Account." Username is student portal login information (ex. Smith3111). First time users will need to click "set/reset password" This will send a temporary password to your school email account.

Library Survey Results: Thanks to those who participated in our library survey last fall semester. The information and comments will help with improving our library services. The winner of the $30 gift certificate to the DTS Bookstore library survey drawing was… our very own Dr. Betty Smith! And no, it was not rigged.

$ LIBRARY RESEARCH PUZZLE $

Library builder from days long ago; Chairman of the Deacons too…yes it is so. Be the first to email his full name and years of chairmen tenure, and win a $10 dollar gift card to Criswell's food center. (prize for Criswell students only)

Congratulations to Chris Keeley for winning last semester's Library Puzzle.

Mobile Device Catalog: The catalog can be accessed on your mobile device using either worldcatmobile.org, or the regular catalog at criswell.worldcat.org.

The library staff is here to serve and assist you with your information needs. Contact us with any questions, requests, or comments, at 214-818-1348 or library@criswell.edu.
