The Church Matching Program is a partnership between the Church and Criswell College. Criswell College will match the Church's gift at the amounts listed below. The Church may provide more; however, the College's match is based upon enrollment and grade level.

- May be full-time or part-time student.
- Amount Varies based upon enrollment and classification.

Undergraduate	Graduate
$200 for 3 credit hours	$250 for 3 credit hours
$400 for 6 credit hours	$600 for 6 credit hours
$600 for 9 credit hours	$850 for full time
$700 for full time

The student's eligibility is based on:

- Submittal of a complete financial aid application to Criswell by the published deadline
- Approval by the Criswell College Scholarship Committee
- The student maintaining satisfactory academic progress
- Church check from church related account. Personal checks are not eligible.

In the event that the student is not eligible or loses eligibility for the Church Matching Grant, the above named church wishes Criswell College to:

- Apply the funds to the student's account without the match.
- Return the funds to the church.

*If no indication is made, the check will automatically be applied to the student's account.
