

Job Description

Department: Psychology and Counseling

Salary/Benefits: Rank and salary determined by experience and qualifications; full-time benefits included

Description:

The successful candidate for this faculty position will assume responsibility as a full-time faculty member in the psychology and counseling department teaching primarily in the BA Psychology and MA Counseling programs. The position begins August 1, 2019.

Distinctives of Criswell College:

The mission of Criswell College is to provide ministerial and professional higher education for men and women preparing to serve as Christian leaders throughout society, while maintaining an institutional commitment to biblical inerrancy.

Academic Responsibilities:

- Teach 21-24 credit hours per year
- Participate in monthly faculty meetings
- Maintain required office hours and be available for student mentoring and advising as assigned
- Attend chapel, annual Faculty Workshop (mid-August), and Commencement (mid-May)
- Serve on faculty committees as assigned

Qualifications:

- Terminal degree Psychology or in Counseling (or ABD)
- Licensed Psychologist or LPC-S (or on track to be licensed)
- Affirms Criswell College's Articles of Faith (<http://www.criswell.edu/about/articles-of-faith/>)
- Member of a Baptist church that affirms the Baptist Faith & Message 2000

Contact:

Interested parties should send cover letter, CV, and three reference letters to:

Dr. Brandon Seitzler, Interim Dean of Academic Affairs
4010 Gaston Ave
Dallas, TX 75246
Email: bseitzler@criswell.edu
Phone: (214)-818-1309