Required Textbooks

- A. The Holy Bible. Yes, bring a Bible to class. I will use the NKJV.
- B. Hill, Andrew E., and John H. Walton. A Survey of the Old Testament. 3d ed. Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 2009. (ISBN 9780310280958)

Course Requirements and Assignments

- A. 4 exams. The exams come from the lectures and notes (not the textbook) and are in multiple-choice, true-false, and matching format. You have access to the tests on Canvas through your student portal. Tests are late after 12:00 midnight at the end of the due date. You are permitted 60 minutes for each one. They are not open-book exams:
 - a. History & poetry through Proverbs

- b. Ecclesiastes through Hosea (Eccl, SS, prophets, Jon, Amos, Hos)
 - c. Isaiah through Obadiah (Isa, Mic, Nah, Zeph, Hab, Jer, Lam, Obad)
 - d. Ezekiel through Malachi (Ezek, Dan, Hag, Joel, Zech, Mal)
- B. Quizzes. There are ten quizzes with ten or eleven multiple-choice and true-false questions, based on the reading from the textbook by Hill and Walton. The lowest quiz score will be dropped when calculating your average score. The quizzes will be taken on your student portal on Canvas and are due by midnight at the end of the scheduled date. See below and on the Course Outline for due dates and which textbook chapters are on each quiz. You may have your textbook open for these quizzes.
- C. Bible Reading. Read Job through Malachi in a version of your choice and report the reading on the reading report available on Canvas. You may use a language other than English. If undistracted this reading takes approximately 25-30 hours. Approximately five chapters make one percent of the assignment. The due date is May 16.
- D. Reading Hill and Walton. Read this textbook, pp. 375-750, and report the pages read on the Textbook Reading Report on Canvas. We do not cover the chapters in canonical order, but chronological. The quizzes will not be on all the chapters of Hill and Walton, but you are to read all the chapters for this assignment. The due date is May 9.
- E. Write a double-spaced, five- to seven-page research paper on one of the OT topics on Canvas, following the guidelines in the Criswell College Manual of Style (2007), which is on Canvas and at [www.criswell.edu/academics/Wallace Library/research resources/Criswell College Manual of Style \(CCMS\)](http://www.criswell.edu/academics/Wallace Library/research resources/Criswell College Manual of Style (CCMS)). The Criswell Manual is almost the same as Turabian. Use the Turabian footnote/bibliography reference method, not APA, MLA, or any other parenthetical reference/works cited method. See the due dates on the class schedule near the end of the syllabus.

The assignment has three stages:

1. Topic—see the list of options; you may suggest a different one subject to the teacher’s approval. The due date is February 14.
 2. Bibliography—list at least six scholarly sources that include at least one journal article (a book article does not qualify) and one Bible dictionary or encyclopedia, all in proper Turabian format. The due date is March 21.
 3. Research paper—The due date is April 18.
- F. Listening to and summarizing Hill and Walton. Watch 14 of the last 28 lectures (from lecture 20 through 47) in the video series A Survey of the Old Testament: Video Lectures, and write one paragraph about what you learned from at least 10 of the 14 lectures. The paragraph must be at least 100 words. The videos are on reserve in the library; of course, you may purchase your own. Students who have waited until the end of the semester, have had trouble scheduling the videos. To plan your time, you can find the length of each lecture on Amazon: when you locate the video, click on the picture and scroll down the page. The due date is May 16.

Course/Classroom Policies and Information

You are expected to be in class for each session. If you must miss for illness, family illness, work emergency or some other justifiable reason, contact the professor ahead of time. You will be responsible for acquiring the notes for the session from a classmate. See below for general attendance information.

Class Attendance

Students are responsible for enrolling in courses for which they anticipate being able to attend every class session on the day and time appearing on course schedules, and then making every effort to do so. When unavoidable situations result in absence or tardiness, students are responsible for acquiring any information missed. Professors are not obliged to allow students to make up missed work. Per their independent discretion, individual professors may determine how attendance affects students' ability to meet course learning objectives and whether attendance affects course grades.

Students requesting a grade of Incomplete (I) must understand that incomplete grades may be given only upon approval of the faculty member involved. An "I" may be assigned only when a student is currently passing a course and in situations involving extended illness, serious injury, death in the family, or employment or government reassignment, not student neglect.

Students are responsible for contacting their professors prior to the end of the semester, plus filing the appropriate completed and approved academic request form with the Registrar's Office. The "I" must be removed (by completing the remaining course requirements) no later than 60 calendar days after the grade was assigned, or the "I" will become an "F."

Academic Honesty

Absolute truth is an essential belief and basis of behavior for those who believe in a God who cannot lie and forbids falsehood. Academic honesty is the application of the principle of truth in the classroom setting. Academic honesty includes the basic premise that all work submitted by students must be their own and any ideas derived or copied from elsewhere must be carefully documented.

Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to:

- cheating of any kind,
- submitting, without proper approval, work originally prepared by the student for another course,
- plagiarism, which is the submitting of work prepared by someone else as if it were his own, and
- failing to credit sources properly in written work.

Institutional Email Policy

All official college email communications to students enrolled in this course will be sent exclusively to students' institutional email accounts. Students are expected to check their student email accounts regularly and to respond in an appropriate and timely manner to all communications from faculty and administrative departments.

Students are permitted to setup automatic forwarding of emails from their student email accounts to one or more personal email accounts. The student is responsible to setup and maintain email forwarding without assistance from college staff. If a student chooses to use this forwarding option, he/she will continue to be responsible for responding appropriately to all communications from faculty and administrative departments of the college. Criswell College bears no responsibility for the use of emails that have been forwarded from student email accounts to other email accounts.

Disabilities

In order to ensure full class participation, any student with a disabling condition requiring special accommodations (e.g., tape recorders, special adaptive equipment, special note-taking or test-taking needs) is strongly encouraged to contact the instructor at the beginning of the course, or if a student has a learning disability, please inform the professor so assistance can be provided.

Intellectual Property Rights

Unless otherwise specifically instructed in writing by the professor, students must neither materially nor digitally reproduce materials from any course offered by Criswell College for or with the significant possibility of distribution.
