Required Textbooks

Kirk, Gallagher, & Anastasiow, Educating Exceptional Children, 14th edition, Boston: Houghton Mifflin Company, 2015. ISBN 9781305778108

Course Requirements and Assignments

No Late Work Will Be Accepted.*

1. Exceptionality Presentation: Each student will choose one area of exceptionality and present a 15 minute, informative lecture. This project must include a bulleted handout for each member of the class, a PowerPoint presentation of at least five (5) slides, and a three page research paper. This project will be due on the class date that the chosen exceptionality is the topic.

DUE: 2/11 to 4/7/2020

POINTS: 15 points

2. Book Review: Each student will read From Stumbling Blocks to Stepping Stones by Sheri Rusch Furnstahl. Once you have finished reading the book, you will write a three (3) page response using the questions supplied by the instructor.

DUE: 3/31/2020

POINTS: 10 points

3. Teacher Interview: You will contact a person who is a special education instructor at a local public school and interview them. You must spend a minimum of 30 minutes interviewing your subject and address all of the questions on the interview form. You will then type your interview and share your findings with the class. Your interview paper is to be a minimum of two typed pages in length.

DUE: 4/7/2020

POINTS: 10 points

4. Teaching Resource Database: Each student will build a Web database of resources that provide information, teaching modifications, or support services for each of the ten (10) classifications of exceptionality. There must be ten (10) sites for each of the ten (10) exceptionalities for a total of 100 websites. The student will submit their databases electronically to each of the other members of the class along with a hard copy to the instructor. The sites will be “shared” electronically on the due date with the class

DUE: 4/14/2020

POINTS: 15 points

5. Exceptionalities Bibliography and Library: This assignment is to aid you in developing your own list of children’s literature which can enhance the teaching of inclusion and acceptance in your classroom. You are to create your own bibliography from the vast array of choices available to you as an educator. The bibliography is to consist of 20 books that are appropriate for grades K-6th. You must have a minimum of 2 books for each exceptionality. You must also have read at least 10 of the books on your bibliography and bring them to class so that you may share them with your peers.

DUE: 4/21/2020

POINTS: 10 points

6. ESL/Bilingual: Each student will view a set of instructional videos on the topic of English Language Learners. After completing the viewing, you will respond to a series of discussion questions. These responses are to be typed. You are to be prepared to participate in a class discussion based on the information in the videos.

DUE: 4/28/2020

POINTS: 10 points

7. Class Notes: All chapter outlines are to be completed by you during the semester. Class discussions will cover portions of the notes. However, it is understood, that time constraints do not permit completion of all outlines during class. Therefore, it is your responsibility to complete the remainder of the outlines during your own studies of the text material.

DUE: 5/5/2020

POINTS: 5 points

8. Final: IEP Development: You will work together in cooperative groups to simulate an ARD Committee. Each group will be given data for an “imaginary” student who is a possible candidate for special services. Along with the data, you will be given an IEP packet to complete for your student. On the day of the final, each group will present their decision to the class along with their proposed modifications and IEP.

DUE: 5/12/2020

POINTS: 15 points

9. Tests: Two tests will be administered during the semester. They will cover material from the text and class discussions.

DUE: Test #1 3/10/2020
Test #2 5/5/2020

Class Attendance

Students are responsible for enrolling in courses for which they anticipate being able to attend every class session on the day and time appearing on course schedules, and then making every effort to do so. When unavoidable situations result in absence or tardiness, students are responsible for acquiring any information missed. Professors are not obliged to allow students to make up missed work. Per their independent discretion, individual professors may determine how attendance affects students' ability to meet course learning objectives and whether attendance affects course grades.

Grading Scale

Incomplete Grades

Students requesting a grade of Incomplete (I) must understand that incomplete grades may be given only upon approval of the faculty member involved. An "I" may be assigned only when a student is currently passing a course and in situations involving extended illness, serious injury, death in the family, or employment or government reassignment, not student neglect.

Students are responsible for contacting their professors prior to the end of the semester, plus filing the appropriate completed and approved academic request form with the Registrar's Office. The "I" must be removed (by completing the remaining course requirements) no later than 60 calendar days after the grade was assigned, or the "I" will become an "F."

Academic Honesty

Absolute truth is an essential belief and basis of behavior for those who believe in a God who cannot lie and forbids falsehood. Academic honesty is the application of the principle of truth in the classroom setting. Academic honesty includes the basic premise that all work submitted by students must be their own and any ideas derived or copied from elsewhere must be carefully documented.

Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to:

- cheating of any kind,
- submitting, without proper approval, work originally prepared by the student for another course,
- plagiarism, which is the submitting of work prepared by someone else as if it were his own, and
- failing to credit sources properly in written work.

Institutional Email Policy

All official college email communications to students enrolled in this course will be sent exclusively to students' institutional email accounts. Students are expected to check their student email accounts regularly and to respond in an appropriate and timely manner to all communications from faculty and administrative departments.

Students are permitted to setup automatic forwarding of emails from their student email accounts to one or more personal email accounts. The student is responsible to setup and maintain email forwarding without assistance from college staff. If a student chooses to use this forwarding option, he/she will continue to be responsible for responding appropriately to all communications from faculty and administrative departments of the college. Criswell College bears no responsibility for the use of emails that have been forwarded from student email accounts to other email accounts.

Disabilities

Criswell College recognizes and supports the standards set forth in Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, and similar state laws, which are designed to eliminate discrimination against qualified individuals with disabilities. Criswell College is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualifying students, faculty, and employees with disabilities as required by applicable laws. For more information, please contact the Student Services Office.

Intellectual Property Rights

Unless otherwise specifically instructed in writing by the professor, students must neither materially nor digitally reproduce materials from any course offered by Criswell College for or with the significant possibility of distribution.

Resources and Support

Canvas and SONIS: Criswell College uses Canvas as its web-based learning tool and SONIS for student data. Students needing assistance with Canvas should contact the Canvas Help Support line at (844) 358-6140. Tech support is available at this number, twenty-four hours a day. Students needing help with SONIS should contact the Campus Software Manager at studenttechsupport@criswell.edu.

Student Services: The Student Services Office exists to foster and encourage success in all areas of life—physical, intellectual, spiritual, social, and emotional. Students are encouraged to reach out for assistance by contacting the office at 214.818.1332 or studentservices@criswell.edu. Pastoral and certified counseling services are also available to Criswell students. Appointments are scheduled through the Dean of Students, at deanofstudents@criswell.edu.

Wallace Library: Students can access academic resources and obtain research assistance by visiting the Wallace Library, which is located on campus. For more information, go to the library website, or email the Wallace Library at library@criswell.edu.

Writing Center: Students are encouraged to consult with writing tutors to improve and enhance their skills and confidence by practicing techniques of clear and effective writing. To consult with a tutor, students can visit the Writing Center located on the first floor near the Computer Lab, or they can schedule an appointment by emailing writingcenter@criswell.edu or calling 214.818.1373.
