Missing Persons Policy

Immediately notify Campus Police if a person is believed to be missing, especially if for 24 hours or more. Campus Police will notify the Dallas Police and local agencies once a person is deemed missing, and the college will attempt to notify the person's parent(s), guardian(s), spouse, and/or next of kin that the person has been reported missing. Immediately contact Campus Police if a reported missing person has been located. If you are unable to reach the Campus Police, contact the Dallas Police Department.
