Course Description and Prerequisites

An intensive study of the research-based methods and strategies currently used to enable second language acquisition for a diverse student population in the EC-6th grade setting whose home language is not English. Pre-service teachers practice teaching strategies that promote oral language, listening, reading, and writing skills with particular attention paid to comprehension and critical thinking skills. Pre-service teachers will also analyze, select, and/or modify teaching materials to facilitate language acquisition for English language learners and to meet TEK standards. (Prerequisite: EDU 301)

Course Objectives

1. Utilize the knowledge of the structure and conventions of English to design lessons that meet diverse learning needs.
2. Discuss current research on second language acquisition and develop student-centered learning activities for diverse English language learners.
3. Analyze a variety of learning materials and modify them to meet the needs of English language learners.
4. Peer teach a listening/oral language, reading, and writing lesson, with an appropriate lesson plan that incorporates TEKS, designed to meet the developmental needs of English language learners.
5. Analyze and interpret assessment data from English language learner writing samples.
6. Design a parent program that meets the needs of a school community whose home language is not primarily English.
7. Complete the TExES ESL supplemental (154) mock practice test with a passing score.

Course Requirements and Assignments

Late Work Classroom Policy: Work is due at the beginning of class on the date designated unless otherwise stated by the professor. Late work will not be accepted.**

1. Video Clip Responses: You will be assigned one video clip from each chapter in your textbook. You are to respond to the questions that accompany each clip with a thoughtful paragraph. Each of your responses will be required for the classroom discussion that will focus on the chapter information demonstrated through the clip.

DUE: each class meeting POINTS: 1 point each /10 points total

2. Activity Pack: You will create three (3) teaching activities for each of the four (4) language arts areas, for a total of twelve (12) activities with a focus on supporting English Language Learners. These will cover the areas of listening, speaking, reading, and writing and must represent one activity for each of the three (3) EC-6th developmental groups. These are to be in a folder with a title page, typed, and 12cpi. Be prepared to share your ideas with your peers.

DUE: 5/27/2020 POINTS: 10 points

3. Listening/Oral Language Peer Teach: You will teach a listening/oral language lesson for an English Language Learner using one of the models in Chapter 5 of the textbook. You may choose which grade level you wish to teach. The lesson is to be approximately 15 minutes in length and be accompanied by a typed lesson plan that incorporates appropriate TEKS.

DUE: 5/28/2020 POINTS: 10 points

4. Reading Peer Teach: You will teach a reading lesson for an English language learner using one of the models in Chapter 6 of the textbook. You may choose which grade level you wish to teach. The lesson is to be approximately 15 minutes in length and be accompanied by a typed lesson plan that incorporates appropriate TEKS.

DUE: 6/29/2020 POINTS: 10 Points

5. Writing Peer Teach: You will teach a writing lesson for an English language learner using one of the models in Chapter 8 of the textbook. You may choose which grade level you wish to teach. The lesson is to be approximately 15 minutes in length and be accompanied by a typed lesson plan that incorporates appropriate TEKS.

DUE: 6/29/2020 POINTS: 10 Points

6. ESL Bibliography and Library: This assignment is to aid you in developing your own list of children's literature which can enhance the reading experience for English language learners. You are to create your own bibliography from the vast array of choices available to you as an educator. The bibliography is to consist of 20 books that are appropriate for grades K-6th. You must also have read at least 10 of the books on your bibliography and bring them to class so that you may share them with your peers.

DUE: 6/01/2020 POINTS: 10 points

7. ESL Writing Samples Assessment: You will be given a set of 3 writing samples from anonymous ESL students who are in an EC-6th grade setting. Using the TELPAS sample descriptors, you will evaluate and rate each of the 3 writing samples as to English proficiency. Be prepared to explain your evaluations to your peers.

DUE: 6/03/2020 POINTS: 10 points

8. ESL Supplemental Practice Test: You will complete the ESL Supplemental Practice test in preparation for the state certification exam.

Due: 6/03/2020

Class Attendance

Students are responsible for enrolling in courses for which they anticipate being able to attend every class session on the day and time appearing on course schedules, and then making every effort to do so. When unavoidable situations result in absence or tardiness, students are responsible for acquiring any information missed. Professors are not obliged to allow students to make up missed work. Per their independent discretion, individual professors may determine how attendance affects students' ability to meet course learning objectives and whether attendance affects course grades.

Grading Scale

			Grade Definitions (optional)
A	93-100	4.0 grade points per semester hour

Incomplete Grades

Students requesting a grade of Incomplete (I) must understand that incomplete grades may be given only upon approval of the faculty member involved. An "I" may be assigned only when a student is currently passing a course and in situations involving extended illness, serious injury, death in the family, or employment or government reassignment, not student neglect.

Students are responsible for contacting their professors prior to the end of the semester, plus filing the appropriate completed and approved academic request form with the Registrar's Office. The "I" must be removed (by completing the remaining course requirements) no later than 60 calendar days after the grade was assigned, or the "I" will become an "F."

Academic Honesty

Absolute truth is an essential belief and basis of behavior for those who believe in a God who cannot lie and forbids falsehood. Academic honesty is the application of the principle of truth in the classroom setting. Academic honesty includes the basic premise that all work submitted by students must be their own and any ideas derived or copied from elsewhere must be carefully documented.

Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to:

- cheating of any kind,
- submitting, without proper approval, work originally prepared by the student for another course,
- plagiarism, which is the submitting of work prepared by someone else as if it were his own, and
- failing to credit sources properly in written work.

Institutional Email Policy

All official college email communications to students enrolled in this course will be sent exclusively to students' institutional email accounts. Students are expected to check their student email accounts regularly and to respond in an appropriate and timely manner to all communications from faculty and administrative departments.

Students are permitted to setup automatic forwarding of emails from their student email accounts to one or more personal email accounts. The student is responsible to setup and maintain email forwarding without assistance from college staff. If a student chooses to use this forwarding option, he/she will continue to be responsible for responding appropriately to all communications from faculty and administrative departments of the college. Criswell College bears no responsibility for the use of emails that have been forwarded from student email accounts to other email accounts.

Disabilities

Criswell College recognizes and supports the standards set forth in Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, and similar state laws, which are designed to eliminate discrimination against qualified individuals with disabilities. Criswell College is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualifying students, faculty, and employees with disabilities as required by applicable laws. For more information, please contact the Student Services Office.

Intellectual Property Rights

Unless otherwise specifically instructed in writing by the professor, students must neither materially nor digitally reproduce materials from any course offered by Criswell College for or with the significant possibility of distribution.

Resources and Support

Canvas and SONIS: Criswell College uses Canvas as its web-based learning tool and SONIS for student data. Students needing assistance with Canvas should contact the Canvas Help Support line at (844) 358-6140. Tech support is available at this number, twenty-four hours a day. Students needing help with SONIS should contact the Campus Software Manager at studenttechsupport@criswell.edu.

Student Services: The Student Services Office exists to foster and encourage success in all areas of life—physical, intellectual, spiritual, social, and emotional. Students are encouraged to reach out for assistance by contacting the office at 214.818.1332 or studentservices@criswell.edu. Pastoral and certified counseling services are also available to Criswell students. Appointments are scheduled through the Dean of Students, at deanofstudents@criswell.edu.

Wallace Library: Students can access academic resources and obtain research assistance by visiting the Wallace Library, which is located on campus. For more information, go to the library website, or email the Wallace Library at library@criswell.edu.

Writing Center: Students are encouraged to consult with writing tutors to improve and enhance their skills and confidence by practicing techniques of clear and effective writing. To consult with a tutor, students can visit the Writing Center located on the first floor near the Computer Lab, or they can schedule an appointment by emailing writingcenter@criswell.edu or calling 214.818.1373.
