Course Requirements and Assignments

A. Tests

1. Test #1 (Chapters 1-5) September 24
2. Test #2 (Chapters 1-10) November 5
3. Test #3 (Chapters 1-17) December 10

B. Quizzes. See the “Course Outline/Calendar” below for dates of the quizzes on vocabulary and grammar.

1. Vocabulary quizzes are comprehensive. See the section “Course Outline/Calendar” for which chapters of vocabulary are included in each quiz.
2. One (1) quiz score may be missed/dropped without penalty. That is, your lowest quiz score will not be used to calculate your final grade. You may request that your highest grade be dropped.
3. A quiz that is not taken receives a grade of zero; but, see #4 below.
4. A quiz missed due to an excusable absence must be made up within one week of your return to class. You must request a make-up quiz, it will not automatically be available.
5. See “Course Outline/Calendar” below for the dates of the quizzes.

C. Daily homework from the Basics of Biblical Hebrew Workbook.

1. Homework assignments are due at the beginning of class, though we will usually review your work early in the class session, so you would turn it in during the period.
2. You will be evaluated on the basis of how much of each assignment you have completed and turned in on time. Corrections will be noted on your work—usually directing you to the relevant part of the chapter in the book that explains the relevant principle rather than giving the answer.

3. You may do extra work on an assignment for up to 10% extra credit on the homework grade. Massive amounts of extra work will still only receive up to 10% extra credit, though it will increase your competency.
4. No late assignments will be accepted. If you are absent on the due date, find another way to get the assignment to me, such as email, fax, or carrier pigeon (front desk, please, my office windows do not open). Email attachments must be in Adobe pdf files, not jpg or other photographic format—as the latter do not usually appear clearly on the receiving end.
5. Your two (2) lowest homework scores may be missed/dropped without penalty.
6. See “Course Outline/Calendar” below for the due dates of the homework assignments.

D. Journaling English Grammar to Ace Biblical Hebrew. While reading the book, journal your answers to questions such as these—but not necessarily all of these (Therefore this assignment is open to your own discoveries and interest about grammar, not restricted otherwise by the professor. However, the journal must have content about grammar, not statements such as, “This was a great book, I learned a lot. I think it would help people really well. And the author has some funny stuff to say. I recommend it.”):

1. What was interesting, and why?
2. What did I learn?
3. What did I previously think about this, but now have changed my mind?
4. Is this a common error that I have seen in print? Do I know an example of this error?
5. Is this a common error I or my classmates make?
6. What was new or surprising to me?
7. What was especially interesting?
8. What is the major point in this section?
9. What questions does this raise?
10. What am I still unsure about?¹

Then type a 2-3-page double-spaced journal of your reading based on your notes. The due date for this assignment is October 1.

Note: You must read the chapter from the textbook on the subject of the day before you come to class. Check the “Course Outline/Calendar” below for the schedule of subjects.

Class Attendance

Students are responsible for enrolling in courses for which they anticipate being able to attend every class session on the day and time appearing on course schedules, and then making every effort to do so. When unavoidable situations result in absence or tardiness, students are responsible for acquiring any information missed. Instructors are not obliged to allow students to make up missed work. Per their independent discretion, individual instructors may determine how attendance affects students' ability to meet course learning objectives and whether attendance affects course grades.

Incomplete Grades

Students requesting a grade of Incomplete (I) must understand that incomplete grades may be given only upon approval of the faculty member involved. An "I" may be assigned only when a student is currently passing a course and in situations involving extended illness, serious injury, death in the family, or employment or government reassignment, not student neglect.

Students are responsible for contacting their instructors prior to the end of the semester, plus filing the appropriate completed and approved academic request form with the Registrar's Office. The "I" must be removed (by completing the remaining course requirements) no later than 60 calendar days after the close of the term or semester in which the grade was awarded, or the "I" will become an "F."

Academic Honesty

Absolute truth is an essential belief and basis of behavior for those who believe in a God who cannot lie and forbids falsehood. Academic honesty is the application of the principle of truth in the classroom setting. Academic honesty includes the basic premise that all work submitted by students must be their own and any ideas derived or copied from elsewhere must be carefully documented.

Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to:

- cheating of any kind,
- submitting, without proper approval, work originally prepared by the student for another course,
- plagiarism, which is the submitting of work prepared by someone else as if it were his own, and
- failing to credit sources properly in written work.

Institutional Assessment

Material submitted by students in this course may be used for assessment of the college's academic programs. Since programmatic and institutional assessment is done without reference to specific students, the results of these assessments have no effect on a student's course grade or academic standing at the college. Before submitting a student's work for this type of assessment, the course instructor redacts the work to remove anything that identifies the student.

Institutional Email Policy

All official college email communications to students enrolled in this course will be sent exclusively to students' institutional email accounts. Students are expected to check their student email accounts regularly and to respond in an appropriate and timely manner to all communications from faculty and administrative departments.

Students are permitted to setup automatic forwarding of emails from their student email accounts to one or more personal email accounts. The student is responsible to setup and maintain email forwarding without assistance from college staff. If a student chooses to use this forwarding option, he/she will continue to be responsible for responding appropriately to all communications from faculty and administrative departments of the college. Criswell College bears no responsibility for the use of emails that have been forwarded from student email accounts to other email accounts.

Disabilities

Criswell College recognizes and supports the standards set forth in Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, and similar state laws, which are designed to eliminate discrimination against qualified individuals with disabilities. Criswell College is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualifying students, faculty, and employees with disabilities as required by applicable laws. For more information, please contact the Student Services Office.

Intellectual Property Rights

Unless otherwise specifically instructed in writing by the instructor, students must neither materially nor digitally reproduce materials from any course offered by Criswell College for or with the significant possibility of distribution.

On-Campus Course Syllabus

ADDENDUM FOR FA-20

HEB 301 FA.L2

Hebrew 1

In the event that Criswell College has to close the campus to on-campus classes in during the FA-20 semester, this addendum specifies how your instructor intends to adjust the course in order to allow students to meet the course objectives.

Nothing changes except for how we meet in class sessions (below) and assignment will all be turned in on Canvas instead of having the option to turn them in during class time or at the Tutoring Center. The method for turning in assignments is not mentioned in the syllabus above, but on the assignment in Canvas.

Remote Class Sessions: Identity and Participation Verification

If campus closes, we will have our class sessions on Zoom. You may join by phone if necessary, but computer, laptop, or tablet is preferable. You may keep your video blacked out if you prefer, but you are expected to be present throughout the session and respond when called upon.
