Required Textbooks

Christian Education Leadership: Making Disciples in the 21st Century Church. Spooner, Bernhard, ed. Coppel, TX: Christian Leadership Publishing, 2012.

Transformational Discipleship: How People Really Grow. Geiger, Eric, Michael Kelley, and Philip Nation. Nashville: B&H Publishing Group and LifeWay Research, 2012.

Course Requirements and Assignments

Weekly reading assignments, written interactions, and any class discussion participation will be due before 11:59pm on the Sunday following the Monday they are assigned. The specific weekly work requirements will be posted in each session's checklist. (Together, the 8 sessions will constitute 50% of the final grade for the course).

An electronic portfolio will be constructed with the following elements:

Interaction Paper (20% of the final grade for the course)

Each student will be required to write an interaction paper. The paper will be an interaction with Transformational Discipleship: How People Really Grow. Review the book, citing strengths and weaknesses of the text. Providing at least one takeaway from each chapter, interact with the author to describe the framework and culture you believe is required for transformational discipleship. For each takeaway, include at least one practical application for use within your current church ministry context. This paper should be 5 pages in length and is due on or before October 4.

Interview Project (15% of the final grade for the course)

This project will be due on or before October 4.

Each student will meet with a Minister of Education or Senior Pastor. The Minister of Education or Pastor must have at least five years of actual hands-on ministry. Students will work together with the Minister of Education or Pastor using the "Sunday School and Small Group Worksheets for Analysis of Growth and Improvement" from Christian Education Leadership: Making Disciples in the 21st Century Church (p. 337).

Students will complete the analysis, following the instructions and typing it out in a similar format as laid out in the book. Use the recommendation questions as an opportunity for dialogue with the Education Minister or Senior Pastor in order to gain insight regarding educational ministry. Work with the minister or pastor to secure all the information needed. Work together in determining all the recommendations.

Interview Report (15% of the final grade for the course)

This report will be due on or before October 4.

Along with the typed analysis project, write a brief report of the interview (3-5 pages). The report should include the student's opinions, observations, and evaluations of the church educational program as well as any new insights gained in the process. This interview report will not be accepted without a completed interview project.

(Please include the name of the minister or pastor interviewed and the date of the interview in both the project and report documents).

Course/Classroom Policies and Information

(Delete section if not needed or enter policies and/or information applicable to your course or classroom. Create relevant subheadings as desired.)

Attendance

Students are responsible for enrolling in courses for which they anticipate being able to participate weekly during the weeks appearing on course schedules, and then making every effort to do so. Such participation may include the following: completing quizzes or exams; emailing faculty or class members as part of an assignment; discussion board posting or response; turning in an assignment; or other communication reflecting ongoing learning in the course. When unavoidable situations result in non-participation, students are responsible for acquiring any information missed. Instructors are not obliged to allow students to make up missed work. Per their independent discretion, individual instructors may determine how participation affects students' ability to meet course learning objectives and whether participation affects course grades.

Incomplete Grades

Students requesting a grade of Incomplete (I) must understand that incomplete grades may be given only upon approval of the faculty member involved. An “I” may be assigned only when a student is currently passing a course and in situations involving extended illness, serious injury, death in the family, or employment or government reassignment, not student neglect.

Students are responsible for contacting their instructors prior to the end of the semester, plus filing the appropriate completed and approved academic request form with the Registrar’s Office. The “I” must be removed (by completing the remaining course requirements) no later than 60 calendar days after the close of the term or semester in which the grade was awarded, or the “I” will become an “F.”

Academic Honesty

Absolute truth is an essential belief and basis of behavior for those who believe in a God who cannot lie and forbids falsehood. Academic honesty is the application of the principle of truth in the classroom setting. Academic honesty includes the basic premise that all work submitted by students must be their own and any ideas derived or copied from elsewhere must be carefully documented.

Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to:

- cheating of any kind,
- submitting, without proper approval, work originally prepared by the student for another course,
- plagiarism, which is the submitting of work prepared by someone else as if it were his own, and
- failing to credit sources properly in written work.

Institutional Assessment

Material submitted by students in this course may be used for assessment of the college’s academic programs. Since programmatic and institutional assessment is done without reference to specific students, the results of these assessments have no effect on a student’s course grade or academic standing at the college. Before submitting a student’s work for this type of assessment, the course instructor redacts the work to remove anything that identifies the student.

Institutional Email Policy

All official college email communications to students enrolled in this course will be sent exclusively to students’ institutional email accounts. Students are expected to check their student email accounts regularly and to respond in an appropriate and timely manner to all communications from faculty and administrative departments.

Students are permitted to setup automatic forwarding of emails from their student email accounts to one or more personal email accounts. The student is responsible to setup and maintain email forwarding without assistance from college staff. If a student chooses to use this forwarding option, he/she will continue to be responsible for responding appropriately to all communications from faculty and administrative departments of the college. Criswell College bears no responsibility for the use of emails that have been forwarded from student email accounts to other email accounts.

Identity Verification

Students enrolled in Distance Education courses are required to present a photo ID to verify their participation in each course at the beginning of the term. Confirmation will occur through live-streamed meetings, video assignments, scheduled video conference calls, and/or another online video medium the instructor assigns.

Disabilities

Criswell College recognizes and supports the standards set forth in Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, and similar state laws, which are designed to eliminate discrimination against qualified individuals with disabilities. Criswell College is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualifying students, faculty, and employees with disabilities as required by applicable laws. For more information, please contact the Student Services Office.

Intellectual Property Rights

Unless otherwise specifically instructed in writing by the instructor, students must neither materially nor digitally reproduce materials from any course offered by Criswell College for or with the significant possibility of distribution.
