Course Requirements and Assignments

- A. CLASS PARTICIPATION (10%): This course requires a number of offsite visits to sacred sites (scheduled during class time) as well as activities in the classroom. Active attendance is required and absences could result in a “F” for the entire course. Even “excused” absences will negatively impact your grade since you cannot participate if you are not present.
- B. HAZEN NOVEL DISCUSSION (5%): Students are to read the Hazen novel and be prepared to discuss it and answer in-class quiz questions on the designated days in the schedule. Those who are absent will receive a zero for this assignment.
- C. FARHADIAN CHAPTER DEFINITIONS (25%): For the Farhadian book, students are to read the chapters listed in the schedule. As students encounter new concepts, terminology, people, names, and dates, they are to select at least 15 important ones from each chapter to record. These can be either word-for-word definitions or short explanations. The definitions are to be uploaded to Canvas by the due date in PDF format. No cover page is necessary, but students should put their name and the chapter from which they are drawing the definitions at the top of the page. These are due at midnight on the evening before we discuss the material in class. There will be no make-ups for any reason; however, of the 10 you submit, your lowest grade for this assignment will be dropped.
- D. FERNANDO CONTENT SUMMARIES (25%): For the Fernando book, students are to read the assigned chapter(s) and write a singled-spaced 1 page content summary. Each summary should be uploaded by the due date in PDF format. No cover page is necessary, but students should put their name and list the chapters they’re summarizing at the top. The goal of this assignment is to summarize concisely and in narrative format the content of what is written using the student’s own words. These are due at midnight on the evening before we discuss the material in class. There will be no make-ups for any reason; however, of the 10 you submit, your lowest grade for this assignment will be dropped.
- E. SACRED VISIT REPORTS (15%): During the course of the semester, we will visit roughly 5-7 sacred religious sites in DFW (or entertain guest speakers in class/via Zoom). These visits will be scheduled during class time and students are responsible for their own transportation to/from the off-campus sites. The professor will notify students via Canvas regarding where and when we will meet. Students should monitor their email regularly and make sure to arrive at the sites on time. Late arrivals will be considered absent. Prior to the visits, students are to read the guidelines found in “A Guide to Visiting Non-Christian Worship Spaces” (located in Canvas at the bottom of the home page). Students should be prepared to report on your visits by answering all five of the Sacred Visit questions for every visit we make during the semester. These questions can be found in Canvas and students should answer the questions during the designated week. Your reports must be submitted by midnight on the evening prior to the class session following the visit (see the schedule below). There will be no make-up reports; however, of the 5-7 visits we do during the semester, your lowest report grade will be dropped.
- F. MID-TERM EXAM (10%): A mid-term exam covering the first half of the course will take place via Canvas during the designated week in the schedule. It will include definitions from the Farhadian chapters, lecture content/discussions, and student reflections on the sacred visits. It is open book/open note.
- G. FINAL EXAM (10%): A final exam covering the second half of the course will take place via Canvas during the designated week in the schedule. It will include definitions from the Farhadian chapters, lecture content/discussions, and student reflections on the sacred visits. It is open book/open note.

Course/Classroom Policies and Information

Students are responsible for arranging their own transportation to/from the sacred sites we will be visiting throughout the semester during class time on Tuesdays.

Class Attendance

Students are responsible for enrolling in courses for which they anticipate being able to attend every class session on the day and time appearing on course schedules, and then making every effort to do so. When unavoidable situations result in absence or tardiness, students are responsible for acquiring any information missed. Instructors are not obliged to allow students to make up missed work. Per their independent discretion, individual instructors may determine how attendance affects students' ability to meet course learning objectives and whether attendance affects course grades.

Grading Scale

Assigning grade definitions (i.e., above average, average, below average) is optional. Please delete the last column below if not assigning definitions. Additionally, delete these instructions when completing syllabus.

Incomplete Grades

Students requesting a grade of Incomplete (I) must understand that incomplete grades may be given only upon approval of the faculty member involved. An "I" may be assigned only when a student is currently passing a course and in situations involving extended illness, serious injury, death in the family, or employment or government reassignment, not student neglect.

Students are responsible for contacting their instructors prior to the end of the semester, plus filing the appropriate completed and approved academic request form with the Registrar's Office. The "I" must be removed (by completing the remaining course requirements) no later than 60 calendar days after the close of the term or semester in which the grade was awarded, or the "I" will become an "F."

Academic Honesty

Absolute truth is an essential belief and basis of behavior for those who believe in a God who cannot lie and forbids falsehood. Academic honesty is the application of the principle of truth in the classroom setting. Academic honesty includes the basic premise that all work submitted by students must be their own and any ideas derived or copied from elsewhere must be carefully documented.

Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to:

- cheating of any kind,
- submitting, without proper approval, work originally prepared by the student for another course,
- plagiarism, which is the submitting of work prepared by someone else as if it were his own, and
- failing to credit sources properly in written work.

Institutional Assessment

Material submitted by students in this course may be used for assessment of the college's academic programs. Since programmatic and institutional assessment is done without reference to specific students, the results of these assessments have no effect on a student's course grade or academic standing at the college. Before submitting a student's work for this type of assessment, the course instructor redacts the work to remove anything that identifies the student.

Institutional Email Policy

All official college email communications to students enrolled in this course will be sent exclusively to students' institutional email accounts. Students are expected to check their student email accounts regularly and to respond in an appropriate and timely manner to all communications from faculty and administrative departments.

Students are permitted to setup automatic forwarding of emails from their student email accounts to one or more personal email accounts. The student is responsible to setup and maintain email forwarding without assistance from college staff. If a student chooses to use this forwarding option, he/she will continue to be responsible for responding appropriately to all communications from faculty and administrative departments of the college. Criswell College bears no responsibility for the use of emails that have been forwarded from student email accounts to other email accounts.

Disabilities

Criswell College recognizes and supports the standards set forth in Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, and similar state laws, which are designed to eliminate discrimination against qualified individuals with disabilities. Criswell College is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualifying students, faculty, and employees with disabilities as required by applicable laws. For more information, please contact the Student Services Office.

Intellectual Property Rights

Unless otherwise specifically instructed in writing by the instructor, students must neither materially nor digitally reproduce materials from any course offered by Criswell College for or with the significant possibility of distribution.

ENCOUNTERING WORLD RELIGIONS

In the event that Criswell College has to close the campus to on-campus classes in during the SP21 semester, this addendum specifies how your instructor intends to adjust the course in order to allow students to meet the course objectives.

The course requirements, assignments, calendar, and attendance requirements from the syllabus for this course are replicated below. Notes and changes to the information in syllabus are highlighted. Information that is no longer relevant is indicated with a strike through the font and replacement or new information is placed in italics.

Course Requirements and Assignments

- A. CLASS PARTICIPATION (10%): This course requires a number of offsite visits to sacred sites (scheduled during class time) as well as activities in the classroom. Active attendance is required and absences could result in a "F" for the entire course. Even "excused" absences will negatively impact your grade since you cannot participate if you are not present. Should we be required to move to Zoom, all visits will take place via Zoom and the requirements for the sacred visit reports listed below will remain the same except that you will focus on the content of the zoom presentation/lecture.
- B. SACRED VISIT REPORTS (15%): During the course of the semester, we will visit roughly 5-7 sacred religious sites in DFW (or entertain guest speakers in class/via Zoom). These visits will be scheduled during class time and students are responsible for their own transportation to/from the off-campus sites. The professor will notify students via Canvas regarding where and when we will meet. These questions can be found in Canvas and students should answer the questions during the designated week. Your reports must be submitted by midnight on the evening prior to the class session following the visit (see the schedule below). There will be no make-up reports; however, of the 5-7 visits we do during the semester, your lowest report grade will be dropped.

Class Attendance

Attendance and participation requirements are the same except that we will meet via Zoom.

Remote Class Sessions: Identity and Participation Verification

All students are required to meet at the regularly scheduled time on Zoom (the professor will provide that information on Canvas). Your video should be on and voice muted (except when engaging in class discussions and/or answering questions). Students who have technology challenges (bandwidth issues, etc.) or need technological accommodations should contact the professor directly to ensure they are able to participate fully in the course.
