- incorporate biblically-based, theological thinking into her or his own leadership as described in the Criswell Graduate Profile.
- 3. recognize various ways in which Christian theology is drawn from Scripture and articulate the central Christian doctrines.
- 4. identify academic success strategies in order to overcome roadblocks to their collegiate success.

Course Requirements and Assignments

- Pre-course and Post-course Assessment: A short survey is administered at the beginning and end of the semester to assist the college in assessing the effectiveness of this course. Though these surveys are not calculated into the course grade, students must complete the first survey before the first day of the course and the second survey by the last day of the course in order to pass the course.
- Class Participation (10%): Repeated exposure to the classroom environment and the ongoing input of the professor and other students in the class is vital to the purpose of the course. Perfect class participation results from perfect attendance.
- 3. Collaborative Group Activities (10%): Students will break into small groups during class sessions and complete a short collaborative activity.
- 4. Reading (10%): Reading must be completed and reported prior to the class sessions as indicated on the Course Calendar in this syllabus. The percent of the assigned reading for the week that has been completed will be reported on Canvas by Monday and Wednesday mornings (9:30 am) preceding the class sessions in which it is due. There is no credit for reading that is not completed and reported by the deadline.
- 5. Colossians (35%): Students will interact with the book of Colossians throughout the semester. This interaction will be reported weekly in class.
  - In the second week of class (August 23rd) students will report whether they have read aloud the book of Colossians in four different translations and will indicate the translation they have chosen for memorization. This will count as one quiz score. Preapproved versions include KJV, NKJV, NASB, NIV, HCSB, CSB, ESV, RSV, NRSV. Other translations require the approval of Dr. Graham before the second week of class.
  - At the beginning of the third through thirteenth class sessions, students will be given a written quiz. They will have fifteen (15) minutes to complete the quiz. On each quiz they will:
    - ... indicate whether they have read aloud the whole book of Colossians at least once in that week.
    - ... indicate whether they have read aloud daily the chapter from Colossians from which the memory verses are taken that week.
    - $\ldots$  write the verses from Colossians from memory as listed on the schedule below.
    - ... define common words found in the memorized section.
  - On the final day of the course, December 10th, students will write or recite Colossians 1:1–3:17. This will count for four quizzes.
  - Quizzes may not be made up after the class session in which they are administered to the class. Students who know in advance that they will be missing a specific class session may arrange to take that quiz prior to the period in which that quiz will be administered. The lowest quiz grade (not including the cumulative test) of the semester will be dropped.
- 6. Writing (35%; cannot pass course without submitting Papers 1, 5, and 6): Students will submit a total of six (6) Papers:

6. Writing (35%; cannot pass course without submitting Papers 1, 5, and 6): Students will submit a total of six (6) Papers:

Papers 1 and 6 will answer the question: "What do you currently believe about the Bible, God, Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, human nature, sin, salvation, the Church, and eschatology?"

- Place the date, your name, paper #, course #, and word count in the upper right corner of the front page. (The papers do not need a cover sheet.)
- There is no specification for the length. Imagine that you are answering this question in response to a job application for a teaching position in a church or school.
- You are free to consult any sources with which you are already familiar in formulating this response; however, this should be your statement of belief. Cite other sources sparingly.
- Draw from and refer to specific individuals, biblical and non-biblical texts, and historical events that provide warrant for your beliefs.
- Pay attention to formal aspects such as syntax, grammar, capitalization, and punctuation.
- Use technical (i.e., biblical and theological) language where appropriate, but give a short definitional explanation for technical language.
- Do not simply leave a section blank if you do not have or are unable to articulate your beliefs on any of the particular topics. Simply indicate that in your paper.
- Submit paper in Canvas.
- Papers will be graded on substantial clarity, logical coherency, as well as very basic formal attributes (e.g., grammar, syntax, capitalization, spelling, punctuation, typed, double-spaced, in 12-point font).
- Paper #6 should display a development in your belief on one or more of these topics. You are encouraged to revise Paper #1 as the basis for Paper #6. Italicize and embolden all revisions and additions.
- Students cannot pass CRIS 100 without submitting Paper 1 and Paper 6.

Papers 2 through 4 will use the following three sentences as prompts:

- 1. My understanding of _____1 has been augmented/changed/challenged this semester based on my exposure to _____ 2. This will affect the way that I lead as a _____3 ___ in my role as a _____ 3. The discipline that I can use to best put this into practice is ____ 1: God, Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit, human nature, sin, salvation, the Church, or eschatology.
- 2: Any required text in any course enrolled in this semester and/or a passage from Colossians.
- 3: ambassador, cultivator, peacemaker, problem-solver, professional
- 4: A specific role in which you currently serve as a leader or the area in which you are preparing to serve. For example, "third grade teacher in a public school," "manager at Wendy's," "youth pastor at the Crossing," "marriage counselor," "mayor of Prosper, Texas," "mother of a sixteen year old."
- 5: Bible reading, prayer, confession, fasting
- Place the date, student's name, Paper #, course #, and word count in the upper right corner of the front page. (The papers do not need a cover sheet.)
- The paper will contain these three sentences and the remaining paper will give equal space to explaining these three sentences.
- Each paper will be 850–950 words (the word count will be listed on the top of the paper).

- The paper will contain these three sentences and the remaining paper will give equal space to explaining these three sentences.
- The paper will be brought to class on the due dates listed on the course calendar. Several papers will be chosen at random to be read aloud by the author. The class will assist in critiquing and refining the paper both substantially and formally.
- Papers will be graded on substantial clarity, logical coherency, as well as very basic formal attributes (use of paragraphs, grammar, syntax, capitalization, spelling, punctuation, typed, double-spaced, in 12-point font)

Papers 5 will answer the questions: "What are the top three to five challenges to your academic success that you identified this semester? What resources did you learn about in this course to help you succeed in light of these specific challenges?"

- It should be 3-5 pages
- Place the date, student's name, Paper #, course #, and word count in the upper right corner of the front page. (The papers do not need a cover sheet.)
- It should be entitled: "Overcoming Roadblocks to My Academic Success."
- Submit paper in Canvas.
- Papers will be graded on substantial clarity, logical coherency, as well as very basic formal attributes (e.g., grammar, syntax, capitalization, spelling, punctuation, typed, double-spaced, in 12-point font).
- Students cannot pass CRIS 100 without submitting Paper 5.

Course/Classroom Policies and Information

Student Success: Instructors work closely with the Student Success Manager. To help provide resources to students who may need it most, we will communicate the names of students who have two consecutive absences, low grades, or any other signs that they may be struggling. The Student Success Manager will reach out to these students and help find appropriate resources.

Recording: Students may not record class sessions in any media. If a student desires to record a class session, written permission must be obtained in advance of the recording. Please submit a written request explaining the purpose of recording and the extent of use of the recording. Under no conditions may recordings be duplicated, given, or lent to anyone who has not been granted permission by the instructor.

Textbooks: The selection of textbooks should not be interpreted as implying the instructor's endorsement of any of the views of the authors. Textbooks are selected for their perceived value in helping to meet the course goals and objectives.

Class Attendance

Students are responsible for enrolling in courses for which they anticipate being able to attend every class session on the day and time appearing on course schedules, and then making every effort to do so. When unavoidable situations result in absence or tardiness, students are responsible for acquiring any information missed. Instructors are not obliged to allow students to make up missed work. Per their independent discretion, individual instructors may determine how attendance affects students' ability to meet course learning objectives and whether attendance affects course grades.

Campus Closure

To ensure the health and safety of students and employees, college administrators may decide it is necessary on rare occasions to close the campus. Once this decision is announced, instructors will contact students to provide further details regarding the campus closure's impact on those courses. Students are responsible to watch for communication from their instructors and respond appropriately. (Unless otherwise specified by the instructor in this syllabus, this communication will be sent to the student's Criswell College e-mail account.)

In order to make progress toward the courses' objectives, instructors have the freedom during most campus closures to require students to participate in activities as alternatives to meeting on campus. An instructor may, for example, hold class remotely (through Zoom) at the scheduled time, provide a recording of a class or presentation for students to watch independently, or assign other activities that students are to accomplish before returning to campus. Students are responsible for accomplishing these alternative activities as well as any course requirements listed in this syllabus during the period of the campus closure. If, during the period of the campus closure, personal circumstances prohibit a student from accomplishing these alternative activities or course requirements and assignment listed in the syllabus during the campus closure, the student is responsible for communicating with the instructor as soon as possible. Instructors will not penalize students who do not have the means to accomplish the alternative activities during the period of the campus's closure and will work with students whose circumstances during the campus closure prohibited their timely completion of course requirements and assignments in the syllabus.

An "I" may be assigned only when a student is currently passing a course and in situations involving extended illness, serious injury, death in the family, or employment or government reassignment, not student neglect.

Students are responsible for contacting their instructors prior to the end of the semester, plus filing the appropriate completed and approved academic request form with the Registrar's Office. The "I" must be removed (by completing the remaining course requirements) no later than 60 calendar days after the close of the term or semester in which the grade was awarded, or the "I" will become an "F."

Academic Honesty

Absolute truth is an essential belief and basis of behavior for those who believe in a God who cannot lie and forbids falsehood. Academic honesty is the application of the principle of truth in the classroom setting. Academic honesty includes the basic premise that all work submitted by students must be their own and any ideas derived or copied from elsewhere must be carefully documented.

Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to:

- · cheating of any kind,
- submitting, without proper approval, work originally prepared by the student for another course,
- plagiarism, which is the submitting of work prepared by someone else as if it were his own, and
- failing to credit sources properly in written work.

Institutional Assessment

Material submitted by students in this course may be used for assessment of the college's academic programs. Since programmatic and institutional assessment is done without reference to specific students, the results of these assessments have no effect on a student's course grade or academic standing at the college. Before submitting a student's work for this type of assessment, the course instructor redacts the work to remove anything that identifies the student.

Institutional Email Policy

All official college email communications to students enrolled in this course will be sent exclusively to students' institutional email accounts. Students are expected to check their student email accounts regularly and to respond in an appropriate and timely manner to all communications from faculty and administrative departments.

Students are permitted to setup automatic forwarding of emails from their student email accounts to one or more personal email accounts. The student is responsible to setup and maintain email forwarding without assistance from college staff. If a student chooses to use this forwarding option, he/she will continue to be responsible for responding appropriately to all communications from faculty and administrative departments of the college. Criswell College bears no responsibility for the use of emails that have been forwarded from student email accounts to other email accounts.

Disabilities

Criswell College recognizes and supports the standards set forth in Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, and similar state laws, which are designed to eliminate discrimination against qualified individuals with disabilities. Criswell College is committed to making reasonable accommodations for qualifying students, faculty, and employees with disabilities as required by applicable laws. For more information, please contact the Student Services Office.

Intellectual Property Rights

Unless otherwise specifically instructed in writing by the instructor, students must neither materially nor digitally reproduce materials from any course offered by Criswell College for or with the significant possibility of distribution.
