

Job Description

Position: Full-time, ranked faculty member in New Testament and Greek

Salary/Benefits: Rank and salary determined by experience and qualifications; full-time benefits included

Description:

The successful candidate for this faculty position will assume responsibility as a full-time faculty member teaching New Testament and Greek courses at the baccalaureate level and graduate level. The position begins August 1, 2022.

Mission of Criswell College: to provide ministerial and professional higher education for men and women preparing to serve as Christian leaders throughout society, while maintaining an institutional commitment to biblical inerrancy.

Academic Responsibilities:

- Teach 24 credit hours per year
- Maintain specified office hours and be available for additional student mentoring and advising
- Attend chapels (weekly) and commencement exercises (annually)
- Participate in faculty meetings, workshops, and committees

Qualifications:

- Academic:
 - Ph.D. in New Testament and/or
 - Ph.D in a related discipline with a minimum of eighteen graduate-level hours in Greek and New Testament
- Experience:
 - Teaching in a college or university classroom
 - Research evidenced by peer-reviewed publications and presentations
- Confessional:
 - Affirms Criswell College's Articles of Faith (<http://www.criswell.edu/about/articles-of-faith/>)
 - Member of a Baptist church that affirms the Baptist Faith & Message 2000

Contact:

Interested parties should submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae, and unofficial graduate transcripts to:

Dr. Christopher Graham, Vice President of Academic Affairs
4010 Gaston Ave
Dallas, TX 75246
Email: cgraham@criswell.edu
Phone: (214) 818-1390