1. Summary: This policy establishes criteria for appropriate solicitation on the College's campus.
2. Rationale: This policy is necessary to ensure that only goods and services consistent with the mission of the College are distributed or sold on the College's campus.
3. Entities Affected: all constituents of the College
4. Definitions: not applicable
5. Policy: Sale or distribution of goods or services on the College's campus by any business, company representative, employee of the College, or student must receive prior permission from the Office of the President.

Student-Sponsored Fundraisers

Any student-sponsored fundraising project on behalf of individuals or organizations requires support and approval by the Student Government Association. The Student Government Association must submit a request to the Student Services Office and receive approval prior to implementation of the project.

Guest Merchandise

The College regularly invites guests to campus or College-sponsored events to share messages, information, or opportunities with students, faculty, staff, or other constituents of the College. Guests often have promotional material or merchandise they wish to give away or sell. In such cases, the following guidelines must be observed:

- A guest of Criswell College will provide promotional material or merchandise (whether complimentary or at a cost) to students, staff, faculty, or other constituents of Criswell College by allowing students, staff, faculty, or other constituents to approach the guest or an area designated by the College where the guest's material or merchandise is arranged and to inquire about the material or merchandise.
- Criswell College employees or volunteers will disseminate promotional material or merchandise on behalf of a guest only upon approval from the Office of the President. In some cases, Criswell College employees or volunteers will provide areas for promotional material or merchandise to be displayed and, in some cases, will encourage students to consider the promotional material and merchandise available.
- Only a guest or volunteers working for a guest will give away or sell promotional material or merchandise on campus.

- Criswell College reserves the right to restrict or deny the dissemination of any promotional material or merchandise that may be deemed inappropriate.

6. Procedure:

- a. Implementation: not applicable
- b. Responsibility for Compliance: Vice President of Finance & Advancement
- c. Notification: This policy will be posted on the College’s website and a summary of the policy will be published in the College’s Student Handbook.
- d. Policy Review: This policy will be regularly reviewed according to the College’s policy review procedure.
